2 CAUSE NO. 12-1-03975-1 SEA

3 PROSECUTING ATTORNEY CASE SUMMARY AND REQUEST FOR BAIL AND/OR
4 CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

5 The State incorporates by reference the Certification for Determination of Probable
6 Cause prepared by Detective Stacy Litsjo of the Seattle Police Department for incident number
7 11-13574.

8 REQUEST FOR BAIL

9 Pursuant to CrR 2.2(b)(2), the State requests the Court to issue a summons directing the 10 defendant to appear in court. As of June 14, 2012, the defendant has no known criminal history.
11 He currently resides in Novato, California, as he has done for the duration of his employment
12 with Pearl Jam Touring Company and Pearl Jam's management company, Curtis, Inc. Based on 13 an exhaustive review of financial records, it appears that between obtaining control of the Curtis
14 Inc. bank accounts in 2006 in his capacity as Chief Financial Officer and his termination in 15 September 2010, Goodrich embezzled at least $380,000 by a variety of means, including
16 electronic funds transfers to pay off his and his wife's personal American Express accounts, wire
17 transfers to his personal bank accounts or an account of a creditor, and use of the corporate
18 American Express card for clearly personal expenses, such as for wine and family travel and 19 vacations.

20 The State requests that the defendant be ordered to have no contact with Kelly Curtis,
21 Carolyn Favale Curtis, any members of Pearl Jam, and any employees of Pearl Jam Touring,
22 Curtis, Inc., Ten Club, LLC, or Flood, Bumstead, McCready & McCarthy, Inc. for the duration
23 of this case.

24 Signed this _____ day of June, 2012.

Case Investigation Report: 2011-13574 – *Addendum to Original CIR per
King County Prosecutor's Office*

Certification for Determination of Probable Cause

That Stacy Litsjo is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case number 2011-13574. There is probable cause to believe that Goodrich, Rickey committed the crime of Theft and Forgery within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington. This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances.

Pearl Jam is a rock band that formed in 1990 and is managed by Kelly Curtis and his management company Curtis Inc.

Rickey C Goodrich was hired by Pearl Jam Touring Company (PJT) in 2005 as the Tour Accountant and in-house Chief Financial Officer for all Pearl Jam entities. In 2006 he also became Curtis Inc's Chief Financial Officer. He was responsible for, and had complete authority over all financial matters related to Pearl Jam's touring operations, which included establishing budgets, approving concert settlement statements with promoters, distributing "road cash" to band and crew members and approving and paying for tour expenses. He approved and signed checks for the accounts for Mr. Curtis and Curtis, Inc. with limited supervision.

In January 2006 Pearl Jam switched business management from Provident to Flood Bumstead McCready & McCarthy (FBMM) to oversee the business management of all of Pearl Jam entities, except Ten Club LLC, which is Pearl Jam's fan club and membership operation. FBMM looked to Goodrich to handle all tour related financial matters.

After taking over the business management function for Pearl Jam, FBMM began to work with Goodrich. This also included the review of road cash discrepancies by Goodrich. Specifically there was an unaccounted balance of approximately $35,000.00 relating to 2005 touring activity as well as unaccounted for monies in 2006. Goodrich always provided plausible explanations and given his position of trust and responsibility over the Pearl Jam's financial matters, Pearl Jam, FBMM and Mr. Curtis accepted Goodrich's explanations.

In 2006 PJT completed an organizational restructuring giving less day to day responsibility for touring activities to Goodrich, and gave him more involvement in Pearl Jam and Curtis Inc. business enterprises. One of the new responsibilities was doing the finances for the Ten Club. During this time, Goodrich terminated the Ten Club accounting firm and brought in Seattle accounting firm Bader Martin, P.S. to take care of Ten Club's tax returns and bookkeeping. This new structure allowed Goodrich to write checks on behalf of Ten Club with little oversight.

In August of 2009, Pearl Jam removed Goodrich as their tour accountant due to a series of late and incomplete accounting. Since putting the new tour accountant in the position, there have been no issues with timing or accountability of road cash. Mr. Curtis has stated that there is no reason to have the issues with tour cash discrepancies that Goodrich had.

Seattle Police Department Case Investigation Report

Case Investigation Report: 2011-13574 – *Addendum to Original CIR per
King County Prosecutor's Office

Later in 2009, Mr. Curtis requested FBMM to have one of their employees placed in Seattle to assist with the management and review of business operations for Ten Club and Curtis Inc. Mr. Curtis wanted someone to look at the cash flow issues his company was experiencing. In April 2010 FBMM assigned accountant Jason Anderson to work at Curtis Inc. in Seattle to take over bookkeeping duties for Ten Club and Curtis Inc.

In May 2010, Pearl Jam's regular tour accountant was not available for a tour run, so Goodrich filled in for him. During the tour, Goodrich resumed responsibility for road cash, which resulted in new discrepancies and accounting deficiencies. One of the discrepancies was a $15,000 cash payment entry that Goodrich claimed was a payment of $3,000 of road cash to each of the five members of Pearl Jam. When Mike McCready, one of the band members, was asked by FBMM to reimburse his share in accordance with the band's standard practices, Mr. McCready stated that he never received the road cash payment. When Goodrich was asked about it, he stated that the money was actually used to pay bonuses for the crew. The crew also disputed Goodrich's claim. Goodrich repaid the $15,000 to PJT and said that he would figure it out later. FBMM also located road cash receipts in the amount of $5000 from May 2010 and 3,000euro from June 2010 that appeared to have a forged signature for Mr. Curtis.

Shortly after these discrepancies were located Mr. Anderson located two suspicious Electric Fund Transfers (EFT) totaling $60,000.00 initiated by Goodrich. Mr. Anderson also found approximately $30,000 in credit card charges from 2009. Goodrich noted on the books as loans to himself out to Curtis Inc's bank account. Goodrich had no authority to give or to loan himself money. When FBMM asked Mr. Curtis about the payments and charges, he stated that he was unaware of them and at no time did he authorize the transactions. FBMM questioned Goodrich. He stated that Mr. Curtis was aware of and authorized the transactions. Mr. Curtis confirmed that he did not authorize them and that he was unaware of the "loans". In August 2010, Goodrich paid back $45,000.00 to Curtis Inc.

Suspensions being raised, Mr. Anderson continued to investigate Goodrich's accounting and bookkeeping. He discovered more unauthorized payments via wire transfers coming from Curtis Inc to Goodrich's personal AMEX as well as charges to the personal AMEX of Goodrich's wife. Goodrich was fired from Curtis Inc and PJT during the week of September 6, 2010.

In October 2010 Mr. Anderson and FBMM completed their investigation of 2006 thru 2010 financial activity for Curtis Inc. they estimated that Goodrich misappropriated at least $380,000 from Curtis Inc. Goodrich was told of the results and repaid another $10,000 to Curtis Inc.

Examples of additional embezzlement include checks made from Curtis company accounts to pay for life insurance for Goodrich for a loss of $5765.00. This was not authorized, nor known about. Goodrich also made $133,859.00 in unauthorized charges on the company's credit card. These unauthorized charges included Amazon.com, various hotels, restaurants, iTunes, and airplane tickets for himself and family members, various retail stores and vendors associated with Crews Unlimited and Fester Productions, both owned by Goodrich.

Between September and December 2010, FBMM attempted to confirm with Goodrich the amount of all the misappropriated monies owed to PJT and Curtis Inc. Goodrich admitted to just over $300,000 in monies owed to Curtis Inc, but denied responsibility for roughly $77,000 in suspicious cash payments that Goodrich claimed went to Curtis Inc, but Mr. Curtis never received. He also denied that he owes PJT approximately $63,000.

After a complete investigative audit; explanation of Goodrich's W-2 earnings, FBMM located the following thefts and misuse of funds:

- (1) Goodrich's W-2 Payroll Detail with Curtis Inc shows that between 2006 – 2010 Goodrich made $342,613.00
- (2) Unauthorized loans/cash advances to Goodrich personally

Date	Transaction	Amount

- (8) Unauthorized and unaccounted for advances of "road cash" during bands tours.
 - Jason Anderson stated that they estimated $91,276.00 was unauthorized advances of "road cash" to Goodrich between 2006 to 2010. Anderson provided copies of the receipts that Goodrich provided and stated that it appears that Kelly Curtis' signature is forged on them.
- (9) Payments from Goodrich/Fester Productions.
 - Goodrich has paid back $65,000 to Curtis Inc in relationship to the embezzlement listed in the above categories.

FBMM has located an estimated loss of $566,000.00, which includes investigation cost. During Goodrich's employment with Curtis Inc and PJT, records show and witnesses confirm that Goodrich lived in Novato, California.

Under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, I certify that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. Signed and dated by me this 7th day of June, 2012, at Seattle, Washington.
